TIME: 1 HOUR 30 MINUTES

Note: Candidates must attempt all the questions. Marks carried by each question are indicated against it.

1. Write five sentences on any one of the following topics: (5 MARKS)

- i. Parliament House Building.
- ii. Mock Fire Drill in Parliament House Complex.
- iii. Why do you think you should be selected as Secretariat Assistant?
- iv. Your First Day in Service.
- v. Working Environment in The Office/Section You Are Posted in.

2. Write a representation addressed to the Secretary General, Rajya Sabha to improve the promotional prospects in Messenger Service of the Secretariat. You should include the following points in your representation but use your own words as far as possible.

(10 MARKS)

- i. Hierarchical structure of the messenger service and length of service required for promotion from a lower grade to a higher grade.
- ii. In gazetted posts, length of service required for promotion from a lower grade to a higher grade is 3 years whereas in messenger's service, it is 5 years.
- iii. On account of implementation of recommendations of the Second Cadre Review Committee Report, combined grades in Messenger Service have been abolished and promotion in every grade made vacancy based.
- iv. Most of the messengers in various grades are of the same age group as a result of which a large number of messengers in lower grade may retire before being promoted to next higher grade in absence of vacancies.
- v. Lower pay in Messenger Service already causes financial hardships; lack of promotional prospects would further increase it.

3. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions below. While answering the questions, use your own words to the extent possible. (10 Marks)

‘In a significant decision, the Union Cabinet on Wednesday cleared a proposal to extend proxy voting to overseas Indians by amending electoral laws. According to a source, for overseas Indians, the Representation of the People Act needs to be amended to include proxy voting as other way to cast their votes. While NRIs and overseas Indians are free to cast their votes in constituencies where they are registered, as per the proposal cleared by the Cabinet on Wednesday, they will also be allowed to use the option of proxy, which as of now is only available to service personnel. The decision comes within days of the Supreme Court telling the Centre that granting voting rights to the 25 million strong NRI population to vote in Indian elections from abroad had to be done at any cost.’

QUESTIONS:

- i. Who has decided to extend proxy voting to overseas Indians?
- ii. What is needed to enable overseas Indians to cast their votes?
- iii. Can overseas Indians vote at present and if so, where?
- iv. To whom option to vote through proxy is available at present?
- v. What was the background that led Union Cabinet to take the decision to extend proxy voting to overseas Indians?

4. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions below. While answering the questions, use your own words to the extent possible. (10 Marks)

‘It is ironic indeed. At a time when the Reserve Bank of India has refused to make public the list of loan defaulters with public sector banks, despite a Supreme Court order to make this information public, it is shocking to see that a public sector bank in Punjab has gone out of its way to name and shame farmers who have defaulted on their loans. In Samrala, a city in the district of Ludhiana, the State Bank here has decided to put up pictures of farmers who have defaulted on their loans in order to shame them. There is a list of names and even women have not been spared.’

QUESTIONS:

- i. What has been refused by The Reserve Bank of India to be made public despite order of Supreme Court to make it public?
- ii. What has been done by a public sector bank?
- iii. Where is this Public sector bank located?
- iv. What is the meaning of the word ‘defaulter’?
- v. Why has the bank made this list public?

5. Each of the following sentences contains an error. Identify it and write the incorrect word and the correct word in the answer script as shown below. (5 Marks)
